Big Crowd Expected For Town's First Press Club Frolic

Marin City's first Press Club frolic is designated for next Sunday, October 1, at the Community House with the doors open and dancing beginning at 9 p.m.

The gay music of Art Articary's noted band will be the main feature of the evening in a party which promises to be one of the town's most festive affairs. Every man and woman in Marin City is invited to come and enjoy the occasion. You're sure to meet old friends and make new acquaintances at this lively new function.

This is the first in a series of Sunday night dances given by the staff of the Marin Citizen and members of the editorial committee to benefit the home town paper, The Marin Citizen. The parties will be held every other Sunday from now on.

Make it a standing date to meet your pals at these festive frolics, invites the volunteer committee.

The admission charge is $1 for residents, with servicemen admitted for 75 cents.

PTA to Greet New Teachers At Open House

This year's first general meeting of Marin City's Parent-Teacher Association will be an open house reception for the teachers, to be held at the school building Friday, October 6, at 7:30 p.m.

There will be a brief business meeting at which time the new school nurse, Mrs. Gertrude Andrews, will outline the school health program for the coming year.

Miss Gertrude Perry, principal, will explain the report card grading system used here, and Superintendent Clifton Boyle will introduce the teachers.

A social hour will follow the meeting. All Marin City parents are urged to come and get acquainted with the children's teachers.

The gathering will be held in the music room, Room 7.

The P-T-A membership drive is now on in Marin City. The class room bringing in the most new members will receive an room prize.

Nameless Tanker Starts War Duty

Having passed her tests with flying colors, the tanker S. S. Elk Hills was delivered Tuesday, September 26, into service with the U. S. Maritime Commission by Marinship Corporation.

With her name painted on the bow, the ship sailed away into the obscurity of wartime censorship prepared to start her important task of ferrying gasoline and petroleum products to all parts of the world. The large 140,000-barrel ship is expected to be particularly valuable in view of the mounting naval war in the Pacific.

Library Grows

Marin City's library patronage has grown so large that a new card index file has been added to hold the records, reports Miss Helen Sullivan.

This branch of the Marin County Free Library now has more than 2000 subscribers.

Sign Up Now for Marin City's Next Blood Bank Day

Sign up this Saturday at the Rental Office from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. to give blood when the Red Cross Mobile Unit next comes to Marin City Friday, October 13.

The Community House desk will be manned on that day and during the following week by Red Cross staff assistants who will make your appointment for you.

The Mobile Unit brings Blood Bank Day to Marin City the second Friday of every month. Make an appointment and keep it!

Sermon Series On Christian Laws to Begin

A new series of sermons will begin at the Marin City Community Church, meeting in the Community Center, next Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service.

Dr. Norman Pendleton will take as his theme for several Sundays, "The Laws of Christian Action and Living"; "The Law of Love"; "The Law of Service"; "The Law of Cooperation"; "The Law of Sacrifice"; "The Law of Fellowship."

The Community Sunday School meets each Sunday at 10 o'clock with classes for all ages.

A nursery is maintained for small children where parents may leave their children during the church service.

Infant Dies Here Despite Artificial Respiration Aids

Infant John Flynn died of asphyxiation in Marin City last Monday morning, in spite of efforts of the Sausalito Fire Department and members of the Medical Center staff who administered artificial respiration for 1½ hours.

The baby was brought to the Medical Center by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Flynn, of House 348, at 6:15 a.m. The neighboring fire department was summoned and arrived immediately with its new inhalator which had been used only once before. During the desperate attempt to revive the child, a tank of oxygen was administered.

The funeral for the four-week-old baby will be held near Sacramento, home of Mr. Flynn.

The Flynn's have two other young children, Peggy and Judy.

Council Approves Quiet Celebration for V-Day Here

Marin City's part in the nation's celebration of V Day, with the accent on proper and quiet commemoration, came up at last Sunday's meeting of the Marin City Council, and a committee was named to work out suitable plans with county officials.

The council approved the statement made by other county officials, that "the public will be better served if the day is one of sober thanks, and not of celebration."

Another celebration, this one to be outright jubilant, is planned for the town's children on Halloween, October 31. The council voted a beginning sum of $25 to finance a big community party, with the committee in charge headed by Vern Lindburg.

24 Students Assigned to Traffic Jobs

Twenty-four schoolboy traffic monitors were named by Marin City school heads this week to patrol the town's street crossings and guide the youngsters safely to and from classes.

The boys will be trained in their new duties by Sheriff Lonnie Allen of Marin City, who will announce working establishment of the patrol very shortly.

Boys from the fourth grade are Bobby Palmer, Arthur Walenta and Robert Pitt. Selected from the high fourth grade were Robert Aune, Frank Kramer and Reynaldo Quintana. The two patrol boys from the fifth grade are Fred Montaya and Jon Lardner.

The sixth grade is represented in the new service by Billy Joe Ward, Chas. Scales, Jean Dawson, James Sargeant and Leo Wright.

The biggest contingent comes from the eighth grade with 11 boys named from the top class. They are Glen Bynum, Glen Cramer, Billie Larder, Raymond Pense, Sam Martin, Tony Quintana, Jerald Scott, Joe Turner, Melville Walton and Merlin Robinson.

Dance Tonight

Tonight is the night of the big teener dance in the Community House, with Sandy Allen's famous jive band.

Registration Increase "Swamps" Clerks At County Court House

"We're swamped," was the report from County Clerk George S. Jones yesterday as on the final day of registration over 30,000 voters were listed for Marin, the largest number in the entire history of the county, and an additional 1700 soldier vote ballots were mailed out.

Calls from all sections of Marin came in yesterday to the central office from registrars throughout the county requesting more books and additional supplies for listing the residents who were pouring into their offices from 8 a.m. until 9 p.m.

"Never had a rush like this before," stated Jones. "During the past six weeks we have registered over 4,000 persons. This makes a record registration between 5,000 and 6,000 over the number we have had before."

The facts presented today by the County Clerk show that "Register to Vote Week" has been an outstanding success in this county, and demonstrated the registrants' support of their parties, who issued a joint statement a little over a week ago urging that all persons make it their home front duty to vote in the November general election.

As yet no breakdown of the registration by party has been completed, but as soon as the ten full-time deputies at the Clerk's office see the light behind the stacks of registration books this table will be released.

Vern Lindburg, chairman of the public affairs committee of the Marin City Council, urges that you send postcards immediately to Miss Ethel Johnson, Housing Authority office, stating, (1) name; (2) work shift; (3) the time and the day of the week that you would be able to attend classes, and (4) the class which you wish to attend. The classes cannot be started until we have listings of persons interested, so send your postcards off today.

The public affairs committee at its meeting last Monday evening suggested the following classes as likely to be of interest: (1) a class combining parliamentary law and public speaking; (2) blueprint reading; (3) refresher mathematics; (4) art. Previously suggested were classes in beginning English, Spanish and home decoration. There has been a considerable response from persons interested in starting a beginning English class; persons interested in other types of classes have not yet been heard from to any large extent.

A meeting to formulate final plans on renovation and meeting times for the proposed new church building in Marin City has been called for Tuesday, October 3, in the Community House lounge at 8 p.m.

All people in Marin City who are interested in arrangements regarding the new church are cordially invited to attend, announces Mrs. Walter Del Tredici, chairman of the committee.

The group, which pioneered efforts to put aside a separate building in Marin City exclusively for church services, has already raised sufficient funds for renovation of the old CD building, promised for church services by the housing authority.

Working on the original committee were Mrs. Julia Hobson, Mrs. W. C. Billingsley and Mrs. Del Tredici.

Nine denominations have signed up to use the building. Other religious groups desiring space at the building may apply at the meeting on Tuesday.

School Absorbs Mounting Total Of Enrollments

Marin City's school enrollment continued to mount this week, with new children signing in every day, bringing the number up to 984 boys and girls now registered here.

"It's increasing daily," says bewildered Superintendent Clifton Boyle, who had been assured by shipyard and housing officials that the situation would be the same as last year when the peak load at the school was 951.

The increase is not in any age group, but distributed evenly over all grades.

On the Air

A Grape Festival program is scheduled for this Sunday over radio station KLX, from 11:15 to 11:45 a.m.

Church Group To Complete Plans Tuesday

A meeting to formulate final plans on renovation and meeting times for the proposed new church building in Marin City has been called for Tuesday, October 3, in the Community House lounge at 8 p.m.

All people in Marin City who are interested in arrangements regarding the new church are cordially invited to attend, announces Mrs. Walter Del Tredici, chairman of the committee.

The group, which pioneered efforts to put aside a separate building in Marin City exclusively for church services, has already raised sufficient funds for renovation of the old CD building, promised for church services by the housing authority.

Working on the original committee were Mrs. Julia Hobson, Mrs. W. C. Billingsley and Mrs. Del Tredici.

Nine denominations have signed up to use the building. Other religious groups desiring space at the building may apply at the meeting on Tuesday.

Who Has the Pipe, Queries Play Leader

"Will the industrious person or persons who dug up the pipe which was sunk in the children's playground, please return it forthwith," pleads Mrs. Lois Nelson, recreation director.

The pipe, which was laboriously driven into the ground there last week, was just as laboriously taken up and carted away this weekend.

"In the meantime, the children can't play horseshoes," says Mrs. Nelson, who points out that there aren't too many recreational facilities in Marin City, and the newly-installed game was popular with the youngsters.

"Return it in the dead of night, as it was taken, and no questions will be asked," concludes the recreation leader.

Yard Will Launch SS Buena Vista Hills Saturday Evening

The fifth-eighth Marinship vessel will be launched on Saturday, September 30, when the tanker S. S. Buena Vista Hills glides into the waters of San Francisco bay at 9 p.m.

Mrs. Felix Kahn of San Francisco will christen the ship following ceremonies starting at 8:30 at the Sausalito shipyard. She is the wife of Felix Kahn, San Francisco business and industrial leader. Kahn is a director of Marinship Corporation, President of MacDonald & Kahn, Inc., and Vice President and Treasurer of Joshua Hendy Iron Works, at Sunnyvale.

Matron of Honor will be their daughter, Mrs. Richard Elkus.

This ship is the fifth of a series of 32 8,250 horsepower tankers which comprise the "Hills" class, named for important California petroleum fields. Buena Vista oilfield is located at Taft in Kern County. It is now producing about 15,000 barrels of petroleum daily with production expected to mount to 23,500 barrels by the end of next year. The field was discovered in 1909 at 1,600 feet. About 819 wells are now producing. A total of 287,000,000 barrels had been produced up to January 1, 1943.

It is expected that a delegation of officials and citizens from Taft and Kern county will be present to witness the launching. Keel for the ship was laid on August 13. Following the launching, the ship will go to the Marinship outfitting docks for completion.

The ship is a high-speed permanent design tanker, 523 feet long, with capacity of 140,000 barrels.

Fenders Clash

Gene Wyman of House 600 and Jack Douglas, Sausalito ice proprietor, were involved in a car accident in front of the commercial center here last Sunday, reports the sheriff's department.

Small damage consisted of crumpled fenders on both automobiles.

Scout Salvage

Ninety tons of scrap newspaper and magazines were collected and shipped last Saturday and Sunday by Boy Scouts, Cubs, Sea Scouts and Air Scouts of Marin County.

Lynn Nears Top as Queen Of The Fiesta

Tonight and Saturday are the last times to buy the tickets which will elect Lynn Draper queen of the San Rafael Fiesta.

The popular young teenager has carried on a vigorous campaign here during the last few weeks, and interested residents have high hopes for her winning against a field entered by many other Marin County girls.

The tickets which bring in her votes, sell for 15 cents or two for a quarter, and entitle the holder to chances on $50 and $25 War Bonds.

Those who haven't yet purchased the tickets, can see Lynn at the teener dance tonight, or contact her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Draper, at A65-520.

R. Monson, Marin City drug store proprietor, also has them on sale at his store.

Story of Man Who Didn't Want To Sell Truck

Fred Davis of A23-170 was insistent. He did not want to sell his truck. But two boys from Sausalito were more insistent. They did want to buy the truck.

So to appease their purchasing ardor, Davis let the lads take the truck for a trial run around the project.

On the north hill, they encountered another young man who liked to drive cars. He was piloting his father's automobile without permission.

No one seems to know the exact cause of the accident, but car and truck smashed.

So, Davis sold his truck after all—to a wrecking garage.

Injured Worker Back on the Job

Ralph Tedder of House 192 went back to his welding job at Marinship last week, after an absence of six months when he was laid up with a complicated leg fracture.

Yard May Help With Foster Home License

An offer of Marinship's help in getting Marin City foster homes licensed for child care, was extended at last week's USO Travelers' Aid Advisory Committee meeting by George Keeney, head of the hiring hall.

Keeney pointed out that, during last week, Marinship has re-hired 70 women, which has increased the child care problem in this area.

He declared Marinship wants to assume its share of this responsibility.

Most recent advance in getting foster homes licensed here was made last week when the housing authority agreed to revamp two Marin City homes to meet the state fire marshall's specifications for fire safety.

In the past, the fire marshall's refusal to pass on Marin City houses has prevented the licensing of any foster homes. Without such a license, it is illegal for women to care for children any place but in the child's home.

The committee also considered the matter of more office space for the USO Travelers' Aid unit in Marin City.

Tedder was injured in a San Francisco street car accident. When complications arose during his convalescence, the new drug penicillin was used in his treatment.

Horse Races and Charity Combine In Ticket Sale

The annual ticket sales, to benefit the San Francisco Children's Hospital and the Stage Door Canteen, are being handled in Marin City now by the town's champ salesman, Peggy Billingsley of A15-116.

The tickets are an admission to the Bay Meadows race track for October 21. Included with the ticket is a chance on a $10,000 cash drawing. Sale price, per ticket, is $1.20.

Town Paper Welcomes Contributors

The Marin Citizen proudly introduces 11 ladies of the city who have joined with out faithful standby, Peggy Billingsley, in serving as neighborhood correspondents. The names of the new contributors are found under the Strictly Personal column head.

The ladies have loyally volunteered their time in order to guarantee news coverage of their own neighborhoods.

Some districts are still not covered by the new system, and The Citizen will welcome the names of any women who would enjoy serving as reporters.

Those interested are asked to phone us at Sausalito 22, or drop into The Citizen office behind the Fire Station.

Residents living near by any of the correspondents are urged to see them and leave news notes concerning their families.

However, those who are unable to contact the ladies can still leave items in The Marin Citizen boxes by the market and rental office.

Dr. Pendleton Speaking for Peace-Action

Dr. Norman Pendleton, campaign director of the San Francisco bay area, for the nationwide Peace-Action Post Card Campaign, announces that the drive is now moving in high gear. Over one hundred and fifty thousand of these cards have been signed and mailed to candidates for the United States Senate, in San Francisco, and Oakland, alone, during the last two weeks.

Last Sunday, Dr. Pendleton spoke to a mass meeting in Sacramento. Next Sunday night, October 1st, he will address a great meeting in the Oakland Civic Auditorium, and on October 15 he will preach at the First Congregational Church of San Francisco on "Must the Babies of Today Become the Victims of Tomorrow's War?"

On Saturday, September 30, he will broadcast over KSFO, with Harold Boyd, the Comptroller of San Francisco, at 6.05 p.m.

Construction Is Under Way on 2 New Tankers

Construction of two tanker ships named for important oil areas of Los Angeles county was under way today at Marinship, following keel layings recently, it has just been revealed.

Keel for the S. S. Montebello Hills was laid on August 30, and keel for the S. S. Inglewood Hills was laid on September 25. Erection of these ships has been going on 24 hours a day since keel laying by Marinship's 15,000 workers.

Present schedules call for the S. S. Montebello Hills to be launched in October and delivered into service about the end of November. The S. S. Inglewood Hills is expected to be launched in November and delivered in December.

The gasoline delivered to our fighting fronts by a single one of these tankers would send 1,000 4-engined bombers on six roundtrip bombing missions to Berlin from British bases, according to company statisticians.

Carley's Barrel Mishap Ends Up Happily After All

When little Carley Sitchler of House 694 attempted to "roll out the barrel" his plans, like those of many a man who could boast of more than his three years, went "all agley".

He ended up under the barrel with a fracture of the right arm near the elbow.

As his mother sadly told the night nurse at the Medical Center that, due to increased family expenses, they had dropped their medical insurance last month, the nurse, just as sadly, arranged for an X-ray appointment and a private physician at Ross General Hospital.

But, much to the relief of everyone, a check with the rental office the next morning revealed the fact that the family was still eligible for CPS care.

This was an important factor as the break proved to be a bad one, necessitating the care of a specialist and possible surgery.

Dr. Frank Lowe, well-known bone specialist, has been called in consultation and hopes soon to have Carley's "pitchin' arm" in good working order.

Cleanliness Cuts Down Town Disease

By MERRITT WEBSTER

Marin City has been praised by visitors as cleaner and more sanitary than most war housing projects. We have always acknowledged that this is due in large part to the cleanliness and care of most of our residents.

However, while most are careful, there is always room for improvement. We have some rats on the hill just now, for example, because some people have been putting garbage in the trash bin instead of in the garbage barrel. And some of the garbage in the apartments is not correctly deposited, breeding rats and flies, both of which carry disease.

POINTS TO WATCH

Please especially watch the following points and train the children to watch them, also:

1—Put garbage and trash in the containers, NOT alongside them.

2—Drain garbage first, then wrap it in newspapers, and put it in the can or barrel—not in the trash bin.

3—When disposing of BROKEN glass, put it in a paper bag or wrap it securely in paper and deposit it in the can or barrel, not in the bin. The garbage men dump the can or barrel into the truck. They have to dig out what is in the bin with their hands. Let's cooperate to save them from bad cuts.

4—Please put paper and dry trash only in the bins.

In the apartment area the garbage containers and bins are not up to the standard we like to maintain. We have asked for funds to make these over. In the meantime, we have stepped up the frequency of collection in the apartment house area in order to try to overcome the situation, until funds are granted to make the needed revisions.

OUR ERROR

In reply to Mrs. Foppe's letter, we have to confess that her statements were quite correct. Some other children did eat ant poison, which was the basis of our statements. Again the rat poison men have been warned not to leave poison anywhere except under the garbage platforms tucked away from within reach of children.

Miss Mable Elms of Marin City returned Saturday from a three weeks' trip to New Mexico.

Miss Marjorie Partridge of Seattle, Wash., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Leonard Macklem at House 770.

H. M. and C. H. Fowler from Stratford were visitors this week at the home of their brother, Albert Fowler.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Windler, formerly of Marin City are the parents of a new baby boy, Thomas Russell. Mr. Windler is in the Marine Corps and Mrs. Windler and children are making their home in Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Mrs. L. Wilson, Mrs. R. Cornell, Mrs. R. Parkin, and Mrs. W. Woods enjoyed a day of shopping in San Francisco Tuesday.

A birthday party was held Sept. 16 for Sharon Severson, who was 3 years old. Eight girls were invited. After lunch the youngsters played games.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hayes spent the weekend in Sebastopol. Their daughter, Caroline, remained to visit indefinitely with her grandparents.

Mrs. Clyde Cromer, better known as Naomi in the sub-assembly shop, is seriously ill at the Dormitories Infirmary with an influenza condition. She expects to return to her home, House 61, by the middle of next week.

Oral Walls, Marinship pipe-fitter leadman, underwent an eye operation in San Francisco last Saturday, and is already at home at House 255, and doing fine. He'll be off work for three weeks and is looking forward to catching up on reading and receiving calls from his friends.

Navy Man Joseph Nathan was a visitor here last week at the home of his sister, Mrs. Joe Emis. He has just completed his boot camp training at Faragut, Idaho, and is stationed at Goat Island. His home town is Milwaukee.

Mrs. Arthur Hart, Marin City Girl Scout leader, has just returned home from the infirmary where she was confined with pneumonia.

Jess Berry, councilman from District D, returned from a week's vacation spent in Butte County, fishing.

Councilman and Mrs. Alex Murphy of A25 are home after a three weeks vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thomas of B3-565, returned from a week's vacation spent with Mr. Thomas' mother in Los Angeles.

The J. W. Smiths of House 323 had as their guests last week Pvt. Jim A. Smith and S 2C Raymond Stuart of Jefferson, Texas, and S 1C W. P. McComb of Beloxi, Miss.

Miss Beulah Dell (Tiny) Morrison and her father J. C. Morison have returned to their home in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross from Los Angeles are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ross of Marin City.

J. T. Squyres of the Merchant Marine, left here last Saturday after a three weeks leave spent with his wife and children at House 261. Squyres has been in the service since May 1, and was stationed on one of the ships which was in the Guam invasion. He was formerly a fireman at Marinship.

Miss Naomi Lary of the Marin City Post Office, returned from a week's vacation spent in Los Angeles and Reno, Nev.

Mrs. Dale Dinsmore was surprised when Mrs. Everett Fitch dropped in for a visit last week. The Fitches, former Marin City residents, recently moved to Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson and baby daughter, Karlene, of A18, left for a three weeks' vacation with relatives in Rochester, Minn.

Mrs. Ethel Cook, resident of Marin City for the past two years, moved to San Francisco last week where she will be nearer to her civil service job. Mrs. Cook has been vice-president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Community Church.

Mrs. Edna Bruno, mother of Mrs. Peter Quanby of House 372, has returned to Marin City after a visit in Minneapolis, and in Illinois.

Visitors at the Peter Quanby home were Mr. and Mrs. M. Teza of New York. They left Sunday for Seattle, Wash.

VICS Vote $50 For Quarters At Army Field

"We need more members", says Mrs. Carrie Percy, new president of the Volunteers in Community Service. "There is plenty of volunteer work to be done here in Marin City, both for the war effort and for the good of the community." She proposed that the meeting on October 24th be made a Guest Night, with a special program to interest Marin City residents who may not be familiar with the work of the VICS.

At the request of Mrs. Ernie Smith, of the Red Cross, the VICS have undertaken the furnishing of the dormitory at Hamilton Field Hospital assigned to the nurses who fly in from the South Pacific with the hospital planes. A fund of $50 was voted to start the work, and a group of members will visit the hospital with Mrs. Smith to make plans. Everyone felt that anything we in Marin County could do for the wounded now arriving here in such increasing numbers from the Pacific area would be well worth while.

Mrs. W. C. Billingsley reported that the Marin City Pie and Cake Booth at the Grape Festival will be the joint effort of all Marin City women, whether or not they belong to any organization. She asks that anyone wishing to donate a pie or a cake, bring it to the Community House on Saturday morning, October 7, no later than 9 o'clock.

Another Grape Festival enterprise, the baby booth, was well benefited by the VICS' baby shower. Contributions from members netted a fine collection for the County Festival.

Mrs. Tom White returned from a visit with friends in Minnesota, and Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cecchini and two children, Lynda and Richard, of Antioch, Cal., were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Del Tredici last week.

Mrs. George Knops and two sons returned from a two months trip with relatives in Wisconsin.

Mrs. George Goziak returned from a month's visit in Minnesota. Returning with her was her husband's mother for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Murphy of Chico, were here visiting Mr. A. M. Weston for a few days. Mrs. Murphy is the daughter of Mr. Weston.

Women's Club Plans Party To Celebrate Founder's Day

By EMMA LOU KAHRT

The Marin City Women's Club, the oldest organization in Marin City, will celebrate its second anniversary next Wednesday night with a Founder's Day party at the Community House.

A varied program has been planned by Mrs. J. R. Kahrt, with the able assistance of Mrs. H. W. McGuire and Mrs. W. N. Makaroff. The program will consist of instrumental music and dancing, with all details in next week's paper.

Mrs. B. C. Bloomquist, gracious club president, will preside and introduce the new members of the club. These same members will be initiated at the next meeting of the club.

Mrs. George Gaibraith, vice president and hospitality chairman, with her charming personality, will welcome guests at the door and present the guest book to them.

Mrs. Fred Phillips, cooperative club member, will beautify the lounge with flowers and Mrs. E. B. Mathews, whose reputation for floral arrangements has spread far and wide, is in charge of corsages.

In charge of refreshments will be Mrs. Robert Cooper, artistic member of the club, who will be assisted by all the members.

Invitations from the club have been extended to the women in various groups in Marin City. Many out-of-town guests have been invited by club members, and we hope to see many of our old friends, who have moved away, with us on this occasion.

The Week at Your Marin County Theatres

Hedda Hopper: Looking at HOLLYWOOD

The only trouble with being a fine actor in Hollywood is you're worked to death. Sydney Greenstreet knows all about that. In less than three years here Sydney, who is my idea of a really excellent actor, has made 12 pictures.

A Sydney Greenstreet part comes close to being the kernel of any picture in which he appears.

That's the way it turned out in "The Maltese Falcon", his first. Audiences didn't know his name, but answers to nearly all the sneak preview cards asking, "Who gave the best performance?" read: "The fat man." That was Sydney, who weighs in at 280 pounds on the hoof.

Warners, where Sydney checks in, knew right then that they had something. Taking advantage of his leave of absence from the Lunt-Fontanne production of "There Shall Be No Night," Warners rushed him into his second, "They Died With Their Boots On," in which he scored again. When the Lunts wound up their road tour Greenstreet signed a studio contract.

NOT A NOVICE

Sydney, who is 64, has been acting 44 years. His stage record reads like a Who's Who of the Theatre, and in fact he has to refer to that musty tome himself in order to recall all that he has done.

The world has been Sydney's oyster. There's hardly a spot on the globe he doesn't know—Canada, the Americas, the British Isles, India, Seylon, Italy, France, Malta, and North Africa—all these he toured not once but many times.

Sydney Greenstreet, who was born in Sandwich, Kent, England, December 27, 1879, is all through traveling. He likes our town and has settled down for good on a high mountain overlooking the town. He greeted me there recently among priceless objets d'art.

"You see, Hedda, I am comfortable at last—I've done with my traveling. I'm 64, and I think there is tremendous scope for fine work here.

"Them most important thing with me in pictures is to keep from being typed. I started as an arch-villain in 'The Maltese Falcon,' and feared for a while that I'd stay a big bad man.

FROM GOOD TO WORSE

"Luckily, and I intend to keep it that way, I haven't. My characterization was changed in 'They Died With Their Boots On,' when I played Gen. Scott. I was a heavy again in 'Across the Pacific,' and a sort of benevolent mystery man in 'Casa Blanca.'

"For 'Background to Danger' I reverted to evil again as head of the Nazi Gestapo, but in 'Conflict' I am a psychiatrist who sends murderer Humphrey Bogart to his execution.

"Devotion' has me cast as William Makepeace Thackeray, a perfectly lovely gentleman, but in 'The Mask of Dimitrios' I again switch to a man of mystery and dark doings.

STILL LEARNING

"The movies are new to me," he says, "but I think I am catching on. The first time I saw myself I was embarrassed. I got the shock of my life. I wanted to die. I know I was pretty bad, but there I was on the screen—a horror. The lens is the actor's best critic—it shows the mind working. It shows feelings. You can get wonderful cooperation out of the lens if you are true, but God help you if you play it false."

Greenstreet has what I call a background. While still a youngster he drifted into amateur theatricals until, encouraged by his mother, he joined the Ben Greet Players and made his debut in "Sherlock Holmes" in 1902.

In 1904 he came to America joining forces with Sir Herbert Tree and Margaret Anglin. For seven years he played with the Lunts in "The Taming of the Shrew," "Idiot's Delight," "Amphytrion 38," "The Sea

Ross Players Popular With Armed Forces

A "command performance" of the Barn Door Canteen, under direction of the Ross Valley Players, will take place on October 6, at Kittle Barn, for members of a unit of Army men stationed in San Francisco, who were entertained at the first Barn Door Canteen while stationed in Marin.

What was originally planned to be the final canteen for the season took place last Thursday night when Navy personnel from this county again enjoyed the hospitality and entertainment of the Players. On Saturday night the Players met for a "members only" meeting at which a revue of the season's plays and skits were given.

Already under way is the winter phase of the Players' wartime activities—their camp and hospital shows. The first took place at Fort Baker and the second, a camp show, went on the boards last night (Wednesday) in Petaluma.

Members of the camp and hospital unit are: John Dowling, Mesdames Arthur Gustafson, Hammond Wright, Arthur Dettner, Eugene Lloyd, Harold Hansen, Francis Styles, Walter Coberly, James Wilson, Mel Oppenheimer, Messrs. Allen Zeiss, Ed Burmeister and Bill Gwinn.

A sign saying, "Closed on V Day" is already posted in the window of the Marin City Liquor Store.

First Days of School Show Absenteeism

"An unreasonable absentee record has already started during the first few weeks of school, with an average of 62 absent daily from their classes" said Superintendent Clifton Boyle yesterday.

Particularly during fair weather, this is greater than could be reasonably expected, Boyle pointed out.

He reminds parents that the only legal reason for school absence is illness of the child.

"The California state law prescribes compulsory attendance. A child may be reported as a truant who shall have been tardy or absent for more than three days without legitimate excuse," Boyle declared.

The parent is held responsible for the child's school attendance record. In cases of truancy the mother or father may be fined by the court.

Ice Man Davis

Bob Davis, ice delivery man, is being welcomed back on his route by old customers who have missed him here for the last two months.

The husky brunette is the brother-in-law of Mrs. Arthur D'Ettel of Marin City.

A total of 1,361 children now attend the Sausalito and Marin City schools.

Business Classes For Adults Open Evenings at Tam

Evening typing and short-hand classes for adults begin soon at Tamalpais High School.

Marin City people interested in the classes may see R. B. Jacka, night principal, any evening at the school between 7:15 and 9:15 o'clock.

A nominal registration fee is the only charge for the instruction.

Deputy Weds Topeka Girl In Marin City

Frank Matthews, Marin City deputy sheriff, and Bernice Kintner from Topeka, Kansas, were married here Sunday, September 16 in a ceremony performed by Dr. Norman Pendleton of the Community Church.

The bride, who wore a dark blue suit with a gardenia corsage, was attended by Mrs. Alex Murphy, wife of the Marin City councilman.

Mickey Stanbury, Marinship burner, stood up with the groom.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the groom's apartment, A61-482, attended by all the wedding guests.

Included in the party list were Mr. and Mrs. Morris Gibbs, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Collins, Mr. and Mrs. John Waldon, Mrs. Lena Scott, Ed Connelly, J. Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Thompson.

Following the reception, an all-night open house was held at Mr. and Mrs. Thompson's home in honor of the newlyweds.

For the time being, the couple plan to stay on in their Marin City apartment.

It's a second marriage for both Mr. and Mrs. Matthews.

UNRRA Seeks Garments for Use in Europe

The United Nations Reconstruction Relief Administration is having a drive, through Catholic churches, for clothing to be used in Europe.

Marin City Catholics are being asked by Rev. Father Henry O'Flynn to bring one warm, substantial garment with them to church this Sunday.

For those who attend by bus, garments may be left with Mrs. Walter Del Tredici at House 131, or bring to the Rental Office Saturday morning between 8:30 and 12:30 p.m.

All garments, in good condition, but hats and shoes, are being solicited by UNRRA.

Children's Day

The regular testing of Marin City's fire hydrants by the Fire Department took place again last Saturday, to the joy of the children and the exasperation of their mothers.

Boys and girls splashed happily in the streams of water, while housewives waited impatiently for the dust to subside to the bottom of the pipes.

The September Blood Bank Day in Marin City yielded 160 pints of blood to the Red Cross Mobile Unit.

French Underground Worker 'Free World' Talk Tuesday

Louis Dolivet, former member of the French underground and international editor of "Free World Magazine", will speak on "Strategy for a Free World" in Scott Hall, San Francisco Theological Seminary and Marin Branch of American Association of University Women.

Dolivet, whose life story is directly connected with the fight for freedom, will give his address and then will open the meeting to a question period from the floor.

The internationalist, as Tuesday night's speaker is known, received his degree in law at the University of Grenoble, and after three years of research in the library of the League of Nations in Geneva, led an institute on world affairs in Paris.

He joined the French Army Air Corps at the outbreak of war and served with it until 1940, when he escaped from France and came to the United States after having worked closely for several months with the French underground.

His magazine is now published in French, Spanish, Chinese and English, and is based upon his convictions, learned at first hand, on how to work toward a free world.

What To Do For Eye Flash Burns is Told

Information concerning the yard's most common mishap, eye flash burns, was released this week from the Medical Center here.

"It is important that everyone know what to do in case of a flash burn. While it occurs at work, it often does not cause pain until hours later when one is at home," said one of the Center doctors.

"The immediate treatment is to put hot or cold compresses over the eyes. It is also beneficial to alternate heat and cold. Castor oil drops can be placed in the eyes," he said.

In cooperation with the yard hospital, the center suggests that the sufferer have someone drive him to Gate 3, where the guard will allow the patient through. But be sure to have your badge along, the doctors warn.

The Medical Center is available for the emergency eye drops, after which treatment such cases are sent to the yard hospital.

"All conditions arising from injury sustained on the job must be referred back to the yard hospital. This is necessary in order to assure the injured of compensation in case of any extensive injury or complication," pointed out the Center doctor.

The school shows 474 children attending morning classes.

New Dad Shelley Announces Baby's Arrival Friday

It's a girl for the Francis Shelleys, born last Friday, September 22, at Cottage Hospital in San Rafael.

"She's beautiful!" chortled the dazed father. The baby is named Kathleen and is the Shelley's first child.

They're old-time residents at A32-256.

Penses Receive Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer R. Pense of House 489 happily announce the birth of a son, September 20, at Ross Hospital.

The eight-pound infant is the Pense's fourth child. They have two other boys and one girl.

Marin War Chest Drive to Aid Home and War Fronts

The Marin War Chest last year proved the efficiency of saving time and money by uniting many relief appeals in one over-all campaign. This year it will once more unite all appeals, except the Red Cross, in one effort. Twenty-six agencies, representing the allied home and national fronts, will participate in the Marin War Chest.

That part of the gift which goes to the California War Chest supports the U. S. O., brings aid to torpedoed merchant sailors, to prisoners of war, and sends food and clothing to the bombed-out starving people of Europe and Asia.

Greatly enlarged programs among boys and girls in Marin County is bringing greater interest to the work of these home front agencies.

The question has been asked by those working in other areas and residing in Marin County: "Just where shall I make my subscription to the War Chest work?" While it is expected that many individuals will make their gifts at their places of employment, it is suggested that Mariners give a generous share of their contribution through the Marin War Chest as the local chest has entire responsibility for the support of its home front agencies.

Marin County War Chest offices have been established in the Court House building, San Rafael. Credit for subscriptions received at the office will be given to the community designated by the donor.

Drive starts October 9th to November 11th.

"ONE UNITED DRIVE — ONCE A YEAR."

Give generously for ALL needs.

School Children Will See Movies By the Red Cross

A graphic portrayal of blood plasma in action will be given on the screen at the Community House, October 11, to children of the 6th, 7th and 8th grades and their mothers.

The movies will be shown in two sessions, 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. A speaker will demonstrate how the blood plasma kits are used.

There is no admission.

There's a waiting list of five youngsters to enter Marin City's kindergarten.

City Greet 14 Incoming Families

Marin City welcomed 14 new families to this community last week. Coming into the apartments were Mrs. Lily Pierce from Missouri, B8-645; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cook from Texas, A27-212; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Byoff of California, B5-585; Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Scofield from Missouri, B6-618; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Melone, A18-138.

Coming into the houses were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jones from Louisiana, 211; Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Boots from Maryland, 639; Mr. and Mrs. Meloney McCallahan of California, 139; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Billings of Illinois, 453; Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hearrell from Oklahoma, 451; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bingham, from Arizona, 385; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gorman from Idaho, 497; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Schoonover from Colorado, 420; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Cody from Texas, 425.

Classified Ad Rates Go Into Effect on Paper

The Marin Citizen classified ad section was set on a business basis by the editorial committee of the Marin City Council at its meeting here last Friday.

From now on, the committee rules, all ads are to be charged for at a regular rate.

These rates are: 50 cents for four lines. More than 10 lines at the rate of 10 cents per line.

In the past, residents were not charged for the sale and service items they submitted to the classified column.

Residents with furniture or personal items for sale are urged to take advantage of the revitalized column which regularly reaches the 1500 families of this war working community.

Ads may be left in The Marin Citizen boxes at the market or community building, or brought to The Marin Citizen office.

Mehitable Gets Bathed at Red Cross Class

Next Tuesday, ladies attending the 10 a.m. Pre-Natal class at the Community House will see Mehitable bathed by Miss Elizabeth Sargent.

The washing demonstration is part of a talk on "Bathing the Baby", given by the Red Cross here for expectant mothers and other interested women.

Mehitable is a large Chase washable doll, which has been used in these courses for the last 10 years.

Last week's discussion was on nutrition and a special guest speaker was Miss Freda Coffin, supervisor of Red Cross public health nursing services in Marin County.

Call Center for Lead Poison Test

The Medical Center this week announced that it has made available for its members laboratory blood tests to determine lead poisoning.

Patients who want this new service should call the center for an appointment.

Navy Dance

The next dance for the Negro boys stationed at Treasure Island will be October 25. Negro girls who would like to serve as junior hostesses for the affair are asked to keep that date open.

Those who can, are asked to sign up now at the USO Travelers' Aid Cottage. The entire affair is sponsored and chaperoned by Navy personnel.

Teener Topics Grape Festival At Kentfield To Open Gates October 7

Edited by
BOB GREENWOOD

Once again we bring out our humble scratch pads to write most honorable column. (Pardon, please, but we've been reading up on Jap fiction.)

We have heard a great deal of comment on the column and would appreciate a great deal more. When you stop to think of it, we have no other way of telling whether the column is satisfactory to all, or whether it isn't.

NEWSY NOTES

Word has been received from Nan and Betty Maycock (who moved last month from Marin City) that they are very lonely for their friends. We think there must be a man concerned.

Nancy Giobbe, known as "Gioblie," has moved to San Francisco from Marin City—(much to her disappointment).

To all teeners: We would like to remind you that October is just around the corner and so is the time to pay dues. Hint! Hint! See Alice James today.

The teener dance this evening sounds like a good deal, what with a band in the flesh.

The committee of two revising the by-laws has gotten a great deal accomplished. However, they could not report to the council meeting because the by-laws are not yet completely revised.

Every issue after this one, under the sub-title of "Council Highlights", we will give you a general idea of what goes on in our sedate (?) council.

It is very kind of Dan Allen to donate some of his valuable time to the club and council. We all realize that he is up to his neck in political warfare.

We sympathize with the Tamalpais News, Tam's school paper. We, also, had our troubles when the Junior Herald was going. The only difference being that they have a staff but no printer, while we had the printer but no staff. More fun!

Yard Vessels Fighting on Many Far Seas

On the second anniversary of its first launching, Marinship today looked back on one of the most spectacular shipbuilding records in maritime history.

Starting with launching of the Liberty ship S. S. William A. Richardson, on September 26, 1942, the Sausalito shipyard has launched 57 vessels, 42 of which were large turbo-electric tankers.

If these 57 sea-going vessels were placed bow-to-stern in a straight line, they would make a line 5½ miles long. At present they are dispersed all over the globe, with many of the tankers taking particularly active part in the rising tempo of war in the Pacific.

The two years of production represent 850,000 deadweight tons of shipping capacity. This is more than the total amount of merchant shipbuilding in the entire United States during the three years, 1937, 1938, and 1939.

Shipbuilding rate of nearly one complete 523-foot tanker each week will be maintained during the coming months as Marinship continues construction of tankers vitally needed for the war in the Pacific.

Grape Festival At Kentfield To Open Gates October 7

One hundred and seven boys and girls from broken homes who are now at Sunny Hills, the Presbyterian Home in San Anselmo, and countless others who will be aided at the home during the coming year, will reap the financial harvest of the Grape Festival, which will be held on Saturday, October 7th, at the Kent Estate in Kentfield, for the event's 45th year.

The Festival, conducted annually by the women of Marin in the interests of charity, draws not only a large portion of the population of this county but also residents from all sections of the bay area, who throng to the many gay booths for articles and fill the lawns of the estate for the variety of programs and this year for the "aquacade" and children's "gay way."

Mrs. Jerome L. Tallant, of Del Mesa, is director of the fete for the second consecutive year, and has announced a new and interesting program for the day, starring radio and screen personalities, in addition to a wide variety of new and original booths which will take their places among the others, some of which have been set-up each year since the opening of Festival activity.

Women from every section of Marin from Tomales to Sausalito, are participating in the Festival this year, and it is expected that a record number of men and women will take advantage of the event to aid the children of Sunny Hills and at the same time purchase personal, household and edible articles.

In addition to the program, booths and other features of the Festival, the awarding of ribbons and prizes to the Victory gardeners of Marin will be made by M.B. Boissevain, Marin Farm Advisor. The judging of the gardens took place during the summer and fall under the supervision of the Marin County Victory Garden Committee. Jo-Jo the Clown, who will entertain guests at the festival, will make an advance appearance at Albert's tomorrow (Friday).

The Grape Festival goes on the air Sunday, October 1, from 11:15 to 11:45 a.m. over station KLX, when Donald Bennett will interview Bernice Freeman, well known Marin woman, upon the 45th Annual Grape Festival.

LeRoy Francard of House 70 was inducted into the Army last Monday.

His wife and small son are living with her mother in Sausalito for the duration.

Red Cross Helps Unite Three Boys

How the American Red Cross helped bring three brothers from the United States together in England was told this week by their sister, Mrs. Elsie Foppe of House 503.

When the third boy arrived in Great Britain he applied to friendly Red Cross workers for information regarding the other two. Then, in order to effect the reunion, he walked 50 miles to reach them.

The boys are Pvt. Franklin Marcum, Pfc. Stanley Marcum and Sgt. Merle Marcum.

Mrs. Foppe has another brother, Pfc. John, now stationed in Boston.

This week there were 510 children enrolled in the afternoon school session.

For PEACE

FRONT

VOTE NO! on proposition No. 12

Governor Earl Warren, the State Chamber of Commerce, civic leaders and a score of employer, employee, civic, veteran and church groups have come forward to oppose No. 12 on the ballot in the election, November 7th. These leaders look upon No. 12 as a threat to industrial peace in California and as a dangerous attack on our united efforts to win the war.

If written into the constitution, this committee is convinced that this proposal entitled "The Right of Employment" would prove a powder keg. It would bring chaos, confusion, and industrial warfare. It would destroy peace on the home front.

Ostensibly designed to crush trade unions, No. 12 goes far afield. It threatens the present good will existing between labor and industry. It comes as an un-American attack on war production. California has plenty of wartime and post war problems. Why start a civil war on the home front?

WPB Announces Business Openings

War Production Board in San Francisco has issued an announcement concerning business opportunities in the Bay area and Northern California, which have been deemed necessary to provide shopping facilities for persons engaged in war work or at housing projects.

Following are the suggested business: San Francisco needs six cafeterias and a large restaurant; Richmond needs food, drug and variety merchandise stores; Vallejo needs all types of local shopping stores; Emeryville and Pittsburg need restaurants; San Leandro, Berkeley and Albany can use small shopping stores; Rodeo has openings for various commercial facilities; and Eureka is in dire need of a grocery store.

Jobs for Marin Veterans Are Planned

Matt A. Graham, of San Rafael, was selected as chairman of the Marin County Veterans Employment Council which held its organization meeting Tuesday afternoon at the City Hall in San Rafael, with membership in the council held by 35 non-profit agencies and organizations chosen to deal with the problems of returning veterans to Marin County.

Serving with Graham as leaders of the Council are: Gail Apperson, Marin County treasurer, vice chairman; Harry H. McElroy, veterans representative of the local United States Employment Service, secretary; Ed J. Racouillat, Marin County Employers Council; Herman Hale, Central Labor Council, and Mrs. Mary G. Ford, Bbusiness and Professional Women's Club, membership committeemen; Wilfred C. Gruit, United States Employment Service, and T. P. Whipple, Veterans Service Committee members.

The Marin Veterans Employment Council is set up under the President's Executive order No. 9297 and is locally organized by the Selective Service Boards and the United States Employment Service.

McElroy, a veteran of World War II and member of the American Legion and Disabled American Veterans, is in charge of the local veterans office, and will make available all employment information and other training and rehabilitation features to veterans as they are discharged, or upon request.

Marin P-TA Group Meets Wednesday

Marin County Council PTA, held its regular September meeting in the Methodist Church, San Rafael, on Wednesday from 10 a. m. to 2:30 p.m. Speaker was Dr. Ralph Lewis, western Marin physician, who recently returned on the Gripsholm.

A report upon the rising interest of the general public in precinct work, contribution of funds and the setting up in the near future of branch offices in Mill Valley and Sausalito were the chief topics of interest Tuesday night at the Republican County Central Committee meeting held in the Marin headquarters, San Rafael, before what was termed "the largest and most enthusiastic audience in years."

A. T. McDonald of Fairfax, precinct work chairman, showed in his report a steady and progressive covering of the county. Harry Ballou of San Anselmo, treasurer, reported an immediate increase in contributions as the result of Governor Thomas Dewey's speech in Oklahoma City; and Mesdames Edna Foster, Harry O. Hund and Alva Lamont gave encouraging reports upon the work of the women of Marin through Pro-America.

Under the direction of Messrs. Beckwith, Sherman and Leppo, Republican headquarters in Mill Valley will be opened in the near future, as will headquarters in Sausalito, according to a report made by George Harlan. Under the direction of Mrs. Anna Obinsky, Republican headquarters have already been opened in Novato.

George Faulkner, campaign manager, gave a report upon the county-wide activities planned, and at the close of his address Assemblyman Richard McCollister congratulated the group on their organization.

The meeting was presided over by Vice Chairman Charles Lund in place of Chairman Bruce Johnstone, who was unable to attend. Lund attributed the increased interest in the coming campaign to the Monday night speech of Dewey, which he said had "brought the nation to its feet."

Spastic Children Aided by Marin's Cripple Society

A meeting of the parents of Marin County's spastic children and a group of persons from San Francisco who are leaders in the field of development for these children was held Monday night at the home of Mrs. Dare Morgan in San Anselmo, under the direction of the Marin Society for Crippled Children, with Mrs. E. A. Wells, of San Rafael, presiding.

Chief speaker for the evening was Ida Sheely, of San Francisco, who discussed the problems of the adult spastic. During the meeting the parents formed a committee to investigate various opportunities now available to spastic children.

Overcharge Found on Bus Commute Rate

An overcharge of 5 cents per month on all Greyhound commute rates for Marin was announced yesterday by the California Railroad Commission following an informal survey made by John Pearson, of the engineering section, transportation department, of the bus rates charged commuters traveling over the Golden Gate Bridge from Marin County to San Francisco.

Pearson in his report pointed out that for the first five months of this year Greyhound showed a profit of 5 cents per month on each commute book, and at the same time he pointed out that for 1943 the bus company had "made" a 10-cent profit. The overcharge, according to the survey, was the result of a two-part bridge bus toll which called for 2½ cents per passenger and a 50-cent base toll for the bus which varied as to the load, for this reason the company was unable to set a basic overall rate which would apply at all times.

Pearson's findings will be considered at a meeting called for Monday, October 16, at the Railroad Commission offices when Marin representatives and Greyhound officials will again meet for informal discussion of the problem.

Marin County Teachers' Association held its annual fall picnic dinner Thursday night, playing host to 160 people. The affair was held in Gerstle Park, and besides teachers and administrators of the county schools, were invited guests.

Phone Company Declares Dividend

The quarterly dividend for the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company was announced this week by N. R. Powley, president of the company, following a recent meeting of the directors.

"The Board declared," said Powley, "for the third quarter, the usual quarterly dividend of $1.50 per share on the Preferred Stock and a dividend of $1.50 per Common share, as compared with $1.75 per Common share for the third quarter of last year.

War Chest Drive Starts Soon

Marin County's War Chest Drive opens Monday, October 9 and closes on Armistice Day, Saturday, November 11. The tentative figure for Marin County is $100,000 and includes both national and local agencies. A breakdown of these figures will give approximately $65,000 to national agencies and the balance, $35,000 to local organizations.

Committee members are asking that the drive be put across with a minimum of fuss and bother, and feel that donations should come in without urging, because this one drive will finance all agencies for the year, and your one gift will be the final one.

Formerly it was customary to put on several drives as several of the agencies preferred to raise their own funds rather than pro-rate their cost of operation with the War Chest organization. However, all budgets are now covered and those making donations will be through for the year. It is for this reason the committee hopes the drive will not lag.

Because of its close proximity to metropolitan centers, Marin County is the home of many commuters—people who earn their livelihood in San Francisco. The War Chest this year is making a special appeal to these people to give at least a good part of their contributions to the locality in which they live, rather than allow it all to be included in the city and county in which they happen to work. The War Chest believes this is only fair inasmuch as local charities as well as national, are included.

Participating agencies in the War Chest Drive are: U. S. O., Seaman's Service, War Prisoner's Aid, national organizations; Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls, St. Vincent's Orphanage, Sunny Hills Farm, Catholic Charities, local agencies

A Year Ago In Marin City

(From The Marin Citizen files of October 1, 1943.)

A pants burglar was at large in Marin City, with two residents complaining to sheriff deputies that their trousers had been snagged from their apartments.

The first bond and war stamp day at the school brought in $372.15 for Uncle Sam.

Mrs. Helen Wilker was elected first president of Marin City's Parent-Teacher Association.

tion.

A year ago today, the Soap Box said, "For a long time workers at bay area shipyards have been trying to get hot meals served at lunch time, instead of having to stand in line for cold, unpalatable food. The closer we get to the winter months, the more important these efforts become." The item is interesting, because last week construction started at the local yard on cafeteria buildings.

*Victory in Europe.

By MICHAEL B. SMITH

It is perfectly proper that Tom Dewey should view with moderate alarm the discord which has developed on a few occasions between the President and Congress.

Most of the thinking people of America have done the same thing, but not for the same reason.

Just for the record, it might be desirable to mention the basis for these differences as reflected by the votes of Republican members of Congress.

T. E. D. would like to forget it, and I don't blame him. A quick look at the record tells the whole sordid story of what might have happened if the wishes of Republican congressmen had become the law of the land.

On every single step necessary to the conduct of the war, the Republican minority voted as a block against the President's program.

On legislation to revise the neutrality act, lend lease, and selective service, the Republicans in Congress stood like the Rock of Gibraltar against them all.

Dewey is correct. There have been occasional differences of opinion between F. D. R. and Congress. In most cases the President's policies have prevailed. And for that the American people are profoundly grateful. Recent history has proven he was correct.

Without revising the neutrality act, America would in effect have said: "In this fight between the Democratic ideal and rule of Tyranny, America is completely indifferent."

Without lend lease, England would have long since been a German outpost. Russia might well be still fighting around Stalingrad instead of on the German border.

These are a few of the things which might have happened if Dewey's party had had its way.

T. E. D. conveniently forgets to mention all this. So you had better remember it.

By DAN ALLEN

The battle is on. Candidate Roosevelt set the tone, in his 'anything for a laugh' speech, when he quoted 'Mein Kampf' and Goebbels, and elaborated heavily on his little dog Fala. Forgotten was his earlier statement that he would not campaign as usual, as 'in these days of tragic sorrow I do not consider it fitting.' From the smart cracks and cheap innuendo that emerged, it was clear that Mr. Dewey had already hit some sensitive spots.

Monday night Mr. Roosevelt got the answer he was asking for. Accepting the challenge, Governor Dewey went into the record to support those charges which Roosevelt has called 'fraudulent' and 'false.' He showed up the 'half truths' which the president had been getting away with for such a long time. He gave the sources of his previous charges, which were in every case Mr. Roosevelt's own most loyal supporters and appointees. The 'indispensable man' idea was traced directly to Senator Truman and 'Boss' Kelly, and Governor Dewey agreed that the Man was indeed indispensable—not only to these two, but also to Boss Hague, Harold Ickes, Madame Perkins, and the thousands of political officeholders who are dependent for their jobs on the present administration. 'If the future of our nation depends on one man,' says Dewey, 'then this country is indeed not free.'

Hold That Stamp

Do not give up your precious shoe ration stamp to an itinerant salesman unless you verify his authorization to take orders for the company he claims to represent!

This warning was issued today by the Better Business Bureau. According to the Bureau, an individual who has decamped with ration stamps and cash on shoe orders in other cities is believed to be operating around San Francisco.

Awaits Army Service Order

Last month the Medical Center nursing staff became complete with the addition of Miss Beatrice Olson, who had set nursing as her goal when she was but nine years old. Her childhood dream was fulfilled in 1941 when she graduated from French Hospital.

As soon as she received her R. N. degree, Miss Olson was given the enviable position as assistant supervisor on a combined medical and surgical ward at her Alma Mater, and stayed there, doing a good job, until April of '42.

Miss Olson wanted to see the East. She found herself in Connecticut, as an office nurse for Dr. Bristol, a prominent obstetrician.

But, wanting to return to California, she did so, after a year, and became an industrial nurse at Hunter's Point, from May until September, until this position was closed at the end of the summer.

Industrial nursing still needed her services, and that is why Beatrice decided to stay in that field, accepting a similar position with Bethlehem Steel.

She heard about C. P. S. and the Medical Center at Marin City, and decided to investigate further, as it appealed to the "pioneer" in her. She found it to her liking, so joined the staff August 28 and is glad she did. So are the Marin citizens. NURSE BRUBAKER

Mrs. Enid Brubaker, our gay and witty nurse, is awaiting orders from the army to join the heroic league of nurses in the service.

Mrs. Brubaker graduated from the Fresno County General Hospital in 1938. She "put one over" on the hospital authorities by marrying Preston Brubaker one year before the completion of her training.

For six months she did night duty at her Alma Mater and then private duty at the Sample Sanitarium for another six months. At the end of that time she accepted an interesting and exciting position with the Agricultural Workers Health and Medical Association, a subsidiary of the Farm Security Administration.

For three years she traveled the State of California to various clinics, setting them up for use in the communities of the migratory workers. In the summer we find her in a "trailer clinic," almost anywhere, anytime, in interesting, remote and far-flung corners of California. During her last year with the agriculture workers, she was on the administrative staff, acting as public relations nurse, and setting up new procedures.

Four months she spent in Mexico City, setting up new procedures and routines there, getting the medical program in working condition, for transportation of the Mexican Nationals to the United States. Mrs. Brubaker's only comment on her stay in Old Mexico, was regarding the advantages of the "siesta." She said she enjoyed it better than did the Mexicans.

It was less than a month after her return to the States that personal tragedy struck. Her husband, Lt. Preston Brubaker, of the U. S. Army Air Corps, was killed in a plane crash.

Undaunted, Mrs. Brubaker has courageously taken up the threads of her life and carried on. She recently joined the Marin City Medical staff where she awaits orders for active duty in the armed forces.
